Cheesemen Is Accused Of Topsy Driving By Pemberton Man

Floyd Cheeseman, of this place, was arrested at Pemberton, Monday, after an accident involving the car he was driving.

Cheeseman was charged with driving a car while under the influence of liquor and leaving the scene of an accident.

Jack Armshire, Pemberton news-hawk, testified that Cheeseman, ran into his parked car and caromed off into a tree, hurling his two companions, Ford Weeast and Thomas Ranier from the car. Both men were slightly injured from the crash.

Cheeseman was pronounced intoxicated by Dr. Harold Longsdorf. He was released under $500 bond.
