WALK DOUBLED ALTAR ORDEAL.

Forgotten License Forced Bridegroom to Six Mile Trip Afoot.

FLORENCE, N. J., Sept. 23.—Metta Weast, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Weast, and Frederick Lowden, of Burlington, were made an uneasy couple the other night through an experience with the new marriage law. The hour for their wedding had arrived, and Assessor Byard Carty, who issues licenses, had not showed up with the valuable paper.

There was only one thing for Lowden to do, walk to the home of Carty, at Bustleton, 'nearly six miles. Receiving the license, which the assessor had forgotten to deliver, the footsore young man and his bride were married by the Rev. C. D. V. Conover, of the Methodist Church.
