Couple United At Church Wedding

Miss Weeast Becomes Panaro's Bride in Mt. Holly Ceremony

MOUNT HOLLY, June 26.—The First Methodist Church here was the scene of a pretty wedding this afternoon at 2 o'clock, when Miss Marjorie Weeast, of 350 Broad Street, became the bride of Daniel Panaro, of Florence. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Earl T. Hann, pastor. The church was decorated with palms and lilies.

The bride, who is a niece of Mr. and Mrs. William Rossell, with whom she lived, wore a white mousseline de soie gown, empire style, over taffeta, veil of white tulle and lace with cape, tiara of seed pearls, and she carried a shower bouquet of white roses, orchids and lilies of the valley.

The wedding march was played by Oscar K. Sprow, and vocal solos rendered by Mrs. Casper Carter. The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, William Rossell.

Mrs. J. Russell Sprow, of Mount Holly, was matron of honor. She was attired in a gown of pink mousseline de soie, with matching hat, and carried pink roses.

The bridesmaids were Miss Helen Panaro, sister of the groom, and Miss Beatrice Weeast, sister of the bride, both of Florence. They wore gowns of aqua mousseline de soie and carried bouquets of talisman roses.

Betty Jean Panaro, sister of the groom, of Florence, was the flower girl. She wore a yelloworgette dress and carried yellow roses.

The best man was Robert Panaro, brother of the groom, of Florence. The ushers were J. Russell Sprow and William Hubbs, of Mount Holly; Claude Weeast and Irving Weeast, cousins of the bride, of Florence.
