FUNERALS OF THREE VICTIMS.

Inseparable in Life. Two Will be Buried at Same Hour.

The funerals of Daniel Weast and William McNinney, two of the unfortunate victims of the sad railroad collision of Thursday last, will be held at their late homes in Florence at two o'clock this afternoon.

The Rev. A. S. Allyn, pastor of the Baptist Church, will conduct the services over William McNinney, and Rev. J. E. Whitton, of the M. E. Church, will perform the services over Daniel Weast. After the home services are concluded both funerals will proceed to the cemetery together.

These two young men are said to have been almost inseparable companions in life, and it is a strange coincidence that it should have continued in death and also to the burial.

The funeral of Frank Boulden, one of those injured in the recent railroad collision and who died at St. Francis Hospital, will take place from White Hill tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. C. H. Elder, of Trenton, will preach the sermon.
