Misses Weeast, Ormond, Ott And Lappan Suburban Brides

BORDENTOWN — Christ Episcopal Church was the scene of a wedding Sunday afternoon when Miss Joan Dolores Weeast, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Weeast of the Bordentown Chesterfield Road, became the bride of Pfc. James Knepp of Lewistown, Pa. The Rev. James E. Purdy, rector of the church, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride, who was escorted in marriage by her father, selected a bridal gown of Chantilly lace over Skinner satin. The gown was fashioned with a fitted bodice, illusion neckline and long pointed sleeves. The skirt was made of lace and net and fell into a short train. She wore a poke bonnet held in place by a fingertip veil of net and seed pearls and carried a white orchid on a white prayer book with ribbon streamers.

Miss Shirley Wright of Groveville served as maid of honor. Miss Betty Guy of Trenton was bridesmaid.

Charles Hill of Bordentown, brother of the bride, was best man. Ushers were Arnold Weeast, another brother of the bride, and Charles Inman of Groveville.

A reception and dinner followed at the Fieldsboro Mansion House for 70 guests, after which the couple left for a wedding trip to Washington, D. C.

Knepp, who is a graduate of Stevens Trade School, Lancaster, Pa., has been in the Army since October. He is now stationed with the Medical Corps at Camp Pickett, Va.

Mrs. Knepp is a graduate of the William MacFarland High School and operates her own dancing studio in her home on the Bordentown-Chesterfield Road. She plans to make her home with her parents
