Notes:

1. Documents for Family Groups in bold text are available on the website.
2. The data on the website is not complete for the Family Groups provided.
3. Individuals (or their family) in grey text have no data on this website, and are provided in this document to show the relationships in the family tree hierarchy.
4. Many of the dates shown are an estimated birth year from Census records. Any corrections to dates, names, or relationships would be greatly appreciated. Use the Contact Us form to provide corrections or to start a discussion.
5. Any contributions of additional data for the Family Groups provided would also be greatly appreciated, especially photos.
6. On the Research page an explanation is given on the research approach taken, which did not include following the families of the female Weeast/Weeast lines.
